Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be found in Silence. As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant, they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, not less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt, the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be; and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

"I will not be satisfied for Lee to be a run-of-the-mill Christian liberal arts school. We will undertake any program that will produce the kind of academic excellence our students need."

The College Seeks A New Direction

LEE GETS A NEW PRESIDENT

Dr. Charles W. Conn assumed the office of President of Lee College in the Fall of 1970. He is faced with the necessary task of expanding Lee College to meet the demanding aspects of a changing world. Dr. Conn has proven himself a capable leader in many areas of the church, most recently serving as General Overseer of the Church of God. Exhibiting a genuine concern for the students, Dr. Conn seems to have grasped the reins of government firmly in his hand. We, the Student Body of Lee College, welcome Dr. Charles W. Conn as our new President.

Dr. Charles Conn, PRESIDENT

VICE-PRESIDENT AULTMAN LEADS COLLEGE ACADEMICALLY

This was the third year of service to Lee College for Vice-President Donald S. Aultman. At the time of his appointment to Lee College, the school was restructured into a four-year Liberal Arts College with three divisions: Arts and Sciences, Religion, and Teacher Education. Dr. Aultman helped immensely in piloting the new program toward full accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This year, Dr. Aultman was selected for inclusion in the twelfth edition of AMERICAN MEN OF SCIENCE, BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE DIVISION.

ADMINISTRATIVE POWER KEPT IN PERSPECTIVE

As Vice-President Aultman stated in a recent interview, "Probably the most demanding aspect of college administration is to keep the needs of all areas of campus life in perspective. Students, faculty, administration, and the Board of Directors all have points of view to which one must respond. Appropriate reaction to each of these domains of academia is essential to responsible leadership."

—Donald S. Aultman, Vice-President and Dean of the College.

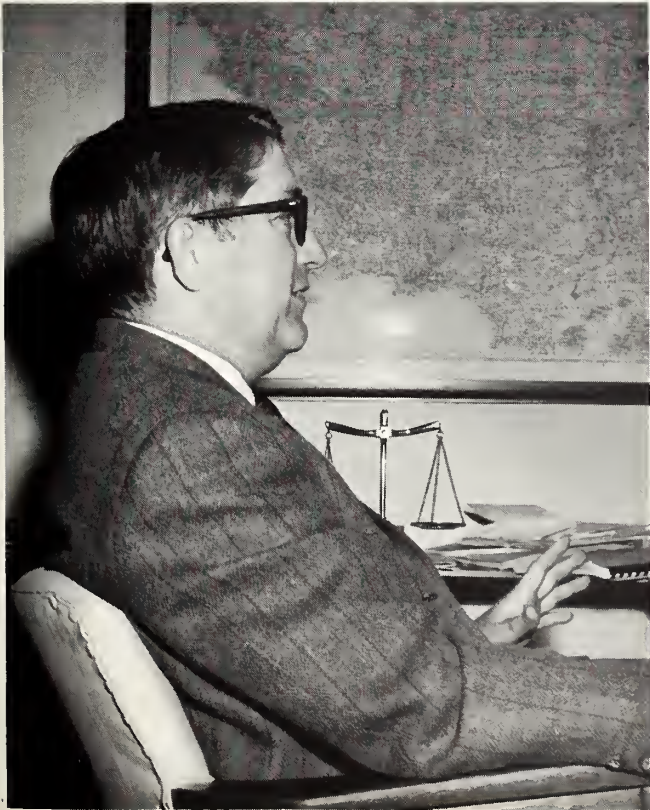

Responsible student participation in the affairs of the school is being encouraged. Active concern has been shown in the administration to create more dialogue between students and itself, as is shown in the following statement by the Vice-President and Dean of Lee College.

“The Lee College student is an unusual person. He is generally equal in intelligence and maturity to other college students I have met, but is far above the average in dedication. I am constantly amazed at the tremendous spirit, loyalty, and cooperativeness of Lee College students. On the subject of student power, I would suggest that a first question which must be considered is whether the college will take the place of the parent while the student is in college residence. It appears that the parents of Lee students expect the college to assume responsibility in this area of student life. Accepting this responsibility, I believe that the college should encourage student participation in all areas of academe from curriculum planning to life in the residence hall. Students must be involved in meaningful decision making if the educational process is to have maximum relevance to their college experience."

A STANDARD OF CONTINUAL IMPROVEMENT IDEALIZED

"The College will seek to continue its academic growth by stabilizing the curriculum and maintaining an openness to innovation and change. In this framework we will implement specific program enrichment in several areas of study far beyond the levels achieved in meeting minimum standards for accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.”

HORACE WARD DIRECTS STUDENT SERVICES

Dr. Horace Ward, Jr. has served Lee College as Dean of Students for two years. Dr. Ward has stated that he has had ample opportunity to observe the strength of character, willingness to bear responsibility, and the social concern of the students. Furthermore, he feels that in all these matters, Lee College students are truly impressive. While still a young man, he has received many honors. Most recently he was selected for inclusion in the 12th edition of AMERICAN MEN OF SCIENCE, BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE DIVISION.

ADMISSIONS DIRECTED BY DR. BUTLER

Dr. Stanley Butler serves as Dean of Admissions. He says that Lee must continue to be sensitive to the needs of our students. Dr. Butler wants to make the necessary academic changes that would better equip the graduates of Lee for their goals in life. He feels strongly,

BOARD OF DIRECTORS LEGISLATE PROGRESS

The Board of Directors of Lee College is the true governing force of the School. Twelve men form the Board to rect the business and decide the policies of our college. Lynwood Maddox, practicing lawyer from Atlanta, Georgia, gifted speaker, enthusiastic lay witness for Christ, presents obvious personal and professional talents needed in an expanding institution. Thurman Curt-singer, from Lawter, Oklahoma, suc-cessful businessman, faithful church-man, a long time supporter of Lee, is the man most likely to see the school in terms of efficiency. Louis H. Cross, pastor of Tremont Avenue, Greenville, S. C., a progressive but dedicated in-dividualist, is bold enough to speak but fair enough to listen.

These men, as well as others, in ses-sion, compose a legislative body which determines school policy. They select and employ the college president, sub-

ACADEMIC PROGRESS ENHANCED

Lee College has concentrated on updating all phases of its academic program this past year. Progress has been particularly noticeable in the Science Department. The Lee College science program was recently divided into two full departments: physical science and biological science. The physical science department offers foundation courses for students specializing in physical science or mathematics. The biological science department offers majors in biological science.

Lee Vikings Continue

Tension rises. The cries of loyal fans echo harmoniously in the Lee College fieldhouse as the powerful Vikings take the floor. The stage is set for another thrilling victory.

Under the direction of Head Coach Dale Hughes, the Vikings continued their domination of the Southern Christian Athletic Conference by capturing their fifth consecutive league title. The smooth sailing cagers also won the Lee Invitational Tournament en route to an outstanding 23-6 season.

Flag Football

With the fall came football. With football came seven teams desiring the distinction of being number one. The intramural season coasted by as the Seniors dominated regular season play. However, in tournament action, the Men of Lee squeaked out a 7-6 victory over the Seniors for the coveted crown.

The all-star team consisted of Paul Barnes, Glen Bell, David Black, Ron Boyd, C. J. The Women's Intramural consists of high-spirited young ladies, who are interested in sports and keeping in shape. They compete against each other in basketball, volleyball, softball, and often a game of football. Under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Qualls and Miss Judy Maxwell, the group launched into a year of funfilled games and excitement. Enthusiasm, sparked by Becky Lewis the club president, promoted an enjoyable year for all.

UPSILON XI

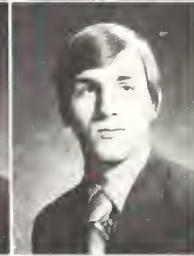

Upsilon Xi, Lee College's oldest fraternal organization, began the 1970-'71 academic year with an extremely young club. They moved quickly, however, and pushed their fall project, Sadie Hawkins, which was an unprecedented success. The men of Upsilon Xi also published a calendar, sponsored a retreat for returning members, and maintained their traditional Reflections project. During the second semester Upsilon Xi prepared itself for the future. It did have time to field a competitive basketball squad, put on their annual spring project musical pomposity, and to close the year on a note of reflection with their annual spring banquet.

Varsak

Upsilon man Duane Kinnison roughs it up with a youngster at the Upsilon Xi Easter egg hunt for underprivileged children.

Francis Bacon, sixteenth century statesman, philosopher, and essayist, once said, "Crafty men condemn studies, simple men admire them, and wise men use them." Members of Pi Delta Omicron, the Religion Division honor society, acknowledge allegiance with the last clause of that famous statement, and as a result of their diligence in study, they are deserving recipients of membership of Pi Delta Omicron. This society exists not only for the purpose of developing Christian character through the promotion of scholarship, but also for the cultivation of responsibility, and for the fostering of spiritual fellowship.

Pi Delta Omicron endeavors to aid its constituency in the following manner: it shall encourage the pastor to lead his flock with the staff of righteousness; the teacher to hold high the torch of knowledge for the enlightenment of his pupils; the steward to give of his best in the promotion of God's kingdom, with the Bible as his guide.

The Circle K Club, established at Lee College in 1967, is not merely an organization, but a driving force, developing leadership for tomorrow while creating a better college today through projects of service. The men of Circle K assisted with the first Lee College blood drive, and the club aided the Little Brother-Little Sister Program by sponsoring a spring picnic. A car bash preceding the Temple game was held to boost the Viking spirit.

Circle K was represented well in the Parade of Favorites by their sweetheart, Miss Patsy McKay.

The Lee College Rotoract Club is the first Rotoract Club in Eastern Tennessee. With the assistance of the Cleveland Rotary Club, the Rotoract Club was chartered in April of 1970. Rotoract presented itself to the campus this year by holding Rotoract Week. Through this project the campus became better acquainted with the purposes of this new organization. They assisted the community by volunteering their services to the March of Dimes.

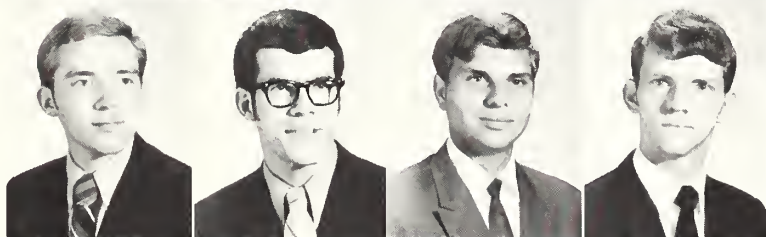

The Lee College Rotoract Club has proven itself to be a valuable addition to the campus and community.

The men of Rotoract assist in local March of Dimes Drive.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

To gain a greater insight into the Democratic party is the aim of the YD's. The Young Democrats actively participated in the 1970 elections by assisting at banquets and rallies, and campaigning for their candidates.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS

Active participation in the Democratic system by backing the party of one's choice is the purpose of the Lee College chapter of the Young Republicans. The campaigning of the YR's was instrumental in the strong showing made by the Republican Party in the 1970 Tennessee elections.

PIONEERS FOR CHRIST

Invasion plans are discussed by Jesse Farley

Religious tracts are an important tool in the work of PFC

PIONEERS FOR CHRIST exists to train young men and women to become effective witnesses for Christ regardless of the profession they enter. The motivating philosophy of PFC is that the public school teacher, the born-again banker, and the minister must all tell the lost about Jesus Christ.

From an embryonic beginning in the spring of 1957, Pioneers for Christ has grown in size and outreach. The youths take the gospel to the rich and the poor alike, thus gaining experience that will benefit them as they carry the gospel around the world.

GO YE INTO ALL THE WORLD...

This was the Great Commission of Jesus to His disciples. The call still echoes forth today. The Missions Department offers a challenge to those desiring fulfillment in a life of dedicated Christian Service.

Whether it be in Hong Kong, in Israel, or in Peru, the need for missionary involvement is great. To the four corners of the globe, the Gospel must be preached.

Many of our past and present representatives recall their days of preparation at Lee College.

What greater gift could one give to his Master than complete dedication to the call of Missions?

Conclusion

Platitudes are the usual thing on pages such as this. Here, there shall be none. I can only give thanks for those who have helped me in the production of a small piece of history, the 1971 Vindagua. I must give my heartfelt thanks to Honette Echols, Mrs. Lois Beach, Mr. Humbertson (sponsors of the book), and to Dr. Don Aultman, the administrative representative. To Charles McKinney and Flavius Lee of the Church of God Publishing House; to my staff members, especially Stephen Thayer, Dean Cleghorn, Helen Foley, Jym Agee, and Phyllis Lane; and to the students, Faculty, and Administration of Lee College; without the help of whom this book could not have become what it is today, the credit must be given for a job well done.
